GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, KENTUCKY.

THIS Institution occupies a high rank among Western Colleges. Its Library, Cabinet of minerals, and apparatus are unsurpassed. Its literary course is the same as that of Yale College, while its scientific course embraces all the best portions of the course at West Point.

For young men designed for practical business there is a course of three years in which a thorough knowledge is imparted in agricultural Chemistry,

Physiology, Zoology, Practical Engineering, Principles of Commerce, and Book Keeping. In this practical feature the College is believed to be unparalleled. Its high aim is to furnish American scholars, and American business men. The rapidly increasing number of Students in attendance is proof of its high rank and efficiency.

This seat of learning is no mere experiment, whose permanence is doubtful, and whose diploma is therefore of uncertain value. It is in a position to exercise and maintain a wholesome discipline without the fear of excommunication; and to require of its students every thing scholarly and manly in the department. It has boarding arrangements adapted to all classes of students; and so adjusted as to avoid the dangers inseparable from the practice of crowding 150 or 200 young men into one building. Students for the ministry can board for $40 per College year. Others of known good character, for about $25 or $30; while those who may prefer boarding in private families can be accommodated for $20 to $30. No student is allowed to board in any family but such as the Faculty shall approve; and a strict but kind supervision is exercised by the faculty over every student wherever he may board. The scholastic year is divided into two sessions. The first commences on the third Monday in September; the second, on the first Monday in February.

COMMENCEMENT DAY

Occurs on the last Thursday in June. Tuition $20 per session.

The annual catalogue may be had by application to the President, Rev. D. R. Campbell, L. L. D.

REVOLUTION IN TEXAS.

IT will be remembered, that, in the beginning of her revolution, in 1836, Texas offered large bounties in land to volunteers to serve in her arm-

We can now offer, to the survivors, and heirs of those who thus served, the recovery of all the lands mismanagement of agents or administrators.

Georgetown Journal.

We regret to learn, as we do upon the best authority, that Mr. CHARLES GRANT, the senior editor of the Georgetown Journal, has retired from his post, with the view of emigrating to Texas.

We regret it, of course, in a personal not in a political or pecuniary point of view; our intercourse has ever been of a pleasant character, despite the fact that, [prompted by the most praiseworthy motives, we frankly admit,] Charley has, to some extent, interfered with our receipt of dollars and dimes. But for this we blame him not; his enterprise was prompted by no malicious desire to put out our editorial chunk, but by an honorable ambition not only to make himself independent, but also, he enabled to succeed and support those to whom he owed that sacred duty.
That he mistook his vocation and his location, we presume, he himself is now willing to admit; for though our friend Charley is a sprightly and even a talented writer, his lack of political and editorial experience, his generous, high toned, patriotic character, &c. utterly prevented his succeeding as a Know Nothing editor; his field of action was too contracted by the erroneous principles, ignorant prejudices and ignoble malice of others.
He could not condescend to the low trickery necessary to support the Know Nothing cause, or indulge in the petty malice thought necessary by some, in order to crush an honorable competitor.

Mr. Grant has learned, by a brief but useful, if not profitable experience, that he had placed himself in a false position; and like a rational, true hearted and discreet man, he has retired from a post, the duties of which were in no way in consonance with the feelings of an honorable, upright man; a man of generous sympathies and sterling integrity—such as we believe our esteemed friend CHARLEY GRANT, to be. Hence, while regretting Charley's departure from our midst, we cordially congratulate him upon his having freed himself from a thralldom, which, if we judge him aright, could not have failed to have been exceeding irksome and repulsive, as well as decidedly unprofitable.
May he, wherever his lot be cast, be blessed in basket and in store; may his pathway ever lie in pleasant places; and may he, in the future, so cultivate his inherent qualities of head and heart as to scornfully eschew and utterly repudiate the selfish, narrow minded and repulsive principles of Know Nothingism.

On dearth of dearling this state of probation I thought I strove for each party with greater caution.
No effort of mine will secure approbation,
No party of mine will give nomination.

The Barbecue.

The Paris Flag says:—"We understand that the Committee of Arrangements are making fine progress. A beautiful white Durham bullock, less than three years old, and weighing about twenty-two hundred pounds, has been purchased for the occasion of Mr. M. M. Clay, at a cost of $150. The Covington & Lexington Railroad will carry passengers to and from the Barbecue at half price.
There will be an ample supply of edibles for any number that will assemble, and a large crowd is expected.

Those who have subscription papers are requested to have them at the court house on Saturday next, that any chance deficiency may be discovered and supplied.

We are authorized to invite all our contemporaries of the press. By the way, some of them have located the barbecue at Cynthiana. They will please make the correction, and inform the public that the Bourbon Railroad Festival will come off at Paris, on the 19th instant."

Good Advice.—There is no country in the world where the people are so addicted to the medicine eating propensity as to the United States. It has grown to be a perfect mania—a disease of itself.
The fact is, nature never designed the human body to be such a receptacle of medicine. If men would but study the laws of nature, diet properly instead of excessively, be regular in their habits instead of regular in their doses, use common sense and cold water freely and the doctor as little as possible, they would live longer, suffer less and pay little for the privilege.

Public Speaking.

Hon. BERTHA MAGOFFIN, democratic candidate for Leut. Governor will address the people of Scott at the Court House in Georgetown on Saturday evening the 21st inst., at 7 1/2 o'clock.

L. B. DICKERSON, Esq., and others, will address the people at or near Sim. Griffie's Saturday the 21st inst., at 2 o'clock P. M.—and at the Stamping Ground, Wednesday the 25 inst., at the same hour.

We learn from the Louisville papers that the Know Nothing councils of Louisville and Taylorsville have decided that none of their members can honorably demit until after the election in August.
We presume that the edict is general, throughout the State. Alas for the slavery of Know Nothingism; for by this silly edict it betrays its weakness as well as its tyranny.

On the first page will be found a communication from Mr. Shehan, in reply to the ungenerous strictures of Mr.
Hanson, in his recent speech upon Catholics and their faith; to which the attention of our readers is respectfully directed.
By-the-by, the name Gibbons, in the article should read Dillons.

A grand Barbecue is to be given at Paris, on the 19th inst., in honor of the completion of the Lexington and Covington railroad.

The K. N.'s have grown amazing bold since the "grand ignoramus" gave them permission to let the public know where they hid themselves; in town they have even been brave enough to stretch a rope, from their lurking place to the opposite side of the street upon which the Star Spangled Banner. It strikes us very forcibly, that if some of the political knaves and demagogues, connected with that Order, were suspended by the neck beside this now disgraced flag, it would tend, greatly "to the good of the Order," as well as to relieve the honorable portion thereof from much of the odium which now obtains against them in consequence of their foul association. It is a fact, which we have frequently verified of late, in our observations upon this interesting Order, that "evil communications corrupt good manners!"

Messrs. Wood and Elliott, the Democratic and K. N. candidate for the Legislature in this county had a debate at the Court House on Monday, which was attentively listened to by a very respectable audience. Not feeling much interest in the debate, we remained in only for a short time; but understand that both gentlemen acquitted themselves in a manner highly creditable to themselves and entirely satisfactory to their respective political supporters.

QUEER.—We learn from the Observer that Hon. T. F. Marshall, owing to the fact that "his lungs have been seriously affected" by his recent political discussions, has retired from the canvass for Congress in this district. Good gracious! what a party! Why did not our esteemed friend Mr. Harrison break his neck when thrown out of his buggy, and thus compel the Democratic party to nominate the honorable gentleman as the competitor of "cousin Alex." And echo answers Why? No doubt our friend Tom, after having failed utterly in his attempt to carry water on both shoulders, sighed out in despair.

Oh dear! Oh dear! this state of probation I thought I strove for each party with greater caution.
No effort of mine will secure approbation,
No party of mine will give nomination.

"The cry is still they come."

"Hark from the corner of the street!
Mine ears attend the cry!
Ye patriots, come, close the ground Where 'Sam' must shortly die!"
"Sam" dies, poor fool, for want of sense; His Herald was a lie.
To patriots all a fool's office!
For which said Sam was a die!"

We learn from reliable authority—one of the most prominent citizens of Oxford —that a number of the Know Nothings in that vicinity, are turning the cold shoulder upon their late associates in the Council; repudiating and denouncing the principles of the Order. More demagogues are anticipated, and some of our friends in that neighborhood, express the opinion that the Know Nothing Council at Oxford will scarce survive until "the ides of August." We have heard similar reports from Leesburg, and also from the lower part of this county; and sincerely rejoice to believe that "the sober second thought," of many, who, have, under false pretences have been inveigled into this obnoxious order, is becoming ascendant, and inducing honest, honorable men to recant misconceived opinions, and repudiate the rotten political refuge afforded by the so-called American party—alias Know Nothings! Grecks! Thugs!

Public Speaking.

S. GARFIELD, Esq., will address the citizens of Scott county, on the political topics of the day, at Squire T. K. Holland's residence, Saturday, July 29, 1855. A general attendance of the citizens of Eagle and of the county of Scott is respectfully requested.

The Frankfort Yeoman puts forth the following "good one," at the expense of our esteemed friend of the Bardstown Gazette:

MELANCHOLY.—Our very particular and beautiful friend McCarty of the Bardstown Gazette has gone raving crazy. The bread-and-butter demagogues of Bardstown, have turned his innocent head and broken his tender heart. A "Miss W." sent him a bouquet last week and that finished him. He raves about the "tender heart of Miss W."—he bewails the poverty of the English language—he pitches into the poems of Miss Landon and lays whole cantos of the same at the toes of Miss W.

Now, we have nothing agin' Miss W.
But we can tell her that she has much to answer for.—She should not trifle with the affections of the press. The heart of an editor is not an india-rubber ball to be kicked about, squeezed up flat, and then "resoon" its pristine shape. It aint that. It is a delicate fixing as susceptible as a ball of putty, and as retentive of all impressions.

Poor Mack's dethroned reason insinuates that our Frankfort girls are not as pretty as the belles of Bardstown. Ha, ha, haw!!! We wish he could see one of them—no we dont. He could not bear the sight. We, a philosopher, a stoic, and a good democrat, whenever we see one of our beautiful belles, are incontinently reminded of Sam Sayers' sweet little tea-sets, of the price of potatoes, of white vests, and a trip to Niagara. If Mack was here we should have to bind him with ropes.

STATE ELECTIONS.—Alabama, Arkansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas, hold their elections on the first Monday in August; Tennessee on the first Thursday, and North Carolina on the second Thursday of the same month. On the second Monday in September, the election in Maine occurs, and that of Vermont on the first Tuesday of the same month.
In Alabama, Kentucky, Texas, North Carolina and Tennessee, members of Congress are to be elected.

The following is going the rounds of the press. It contains truth if not poetry.
Read it and "be gentle to your wife," if you have no wife of your own, be gentle to some "other feller's."

Be Gentle with Thy Wife.

Be gentle—for you little know How many trials rise;
Although to thee they may be small,
To her of giant size.

Be gentle, though perchance that lip May speak a murmuring tone;
The heart may speak with kindness yet,
And joy to be thine own.

Be gentle; weary hours of pain It's woman's lot to bear; Then yield her what support thou canst,
And all her sorrows share.

Be gentle, for the noblest hearts At times may have some grief, And even in a pettish word May seek to find relief.

Be gentle; none are perfect here—Thou'rt dearer far than life; Then husband bear, and still forbear—Be gentle to thy wife.

RUSSIAN SISTERS OF MERCY.—There are already ninety six of these ladies in the Crimia, no less than sixty-five of whom are at Sebastopol alone.

A KENTUCKIAN MISTAKEN FOR A PIGEON DROPPER.—The St. Louis Republican furnishes us with the following singular story:

An annoyance of a most disagreeable nature, on Friday night, was perpetrated upon a gentleman who is a stranger in this city. It was nothing more nor less than being hauled out of his room at 1 o'clock at night by the police officers, to answer a charge of pigeon-dropping and swindlings preferred against him by a man who is also a stranger, and who swore positively to his being the man.— The gentleman we refer to is a well-known resident of Covington, Kentucky, and is one of the most extensive operators in tobacco of the western country, and for a number of years has been dealing in this city. His unfortunate resemblance to a notorious thief and pigeon-dropper, however, involved him in a very unpleasant affair.

On last Friday afternoon, a man by the name of Butler was diddled out of about fifty dollars near the new reservoir, by the Mexican puzzle, and one of the parties told him his name and the number of his room at a certain hotel, by way of making the Iowa gentleman perfectly secure. The thief, who is well-known to the police, had been sharp enough to take advantage of his "likeness" to the Kentucky gentleman, and by some means became acquainted with his name, the number of his room, and his business in the city, all of which he told his Iowa victim, who gave the information at the police office, and which led to the arrest of the gentleman referred to. He, however, sent word to some of his friends, well-known citizens of this city, with whom he had had intimate business relations, who came at once to the police office and bailed him out, and relieved him for the time being of his unpleasant predicament.

The case was called yesterday in the Recorder's Court, and although the Iowa gentleman swore positively to his being the man, it was soon apparent to the Court and several police officers that he had mistaken his man, and they knew at once who the real offender was. The officers are in search of him, and we presume, not till the Iowa man has confronted the real swindler will he be satisfied of his mistake. It is needless to say that the Covington gentleman was at once discharged.
Although the affair was exceedingly unpleasant, yet the Kentuckian took it very calmly, and he certainly will have a good joke to relate upon himself when he gets home.

Who Blames Me for It?

I love a pretty woman (bless her soul) Her shapely form, sweet face, and gentle carriage;

Her pleasant language; and upon the Whole; a maiden, less than one who lives in marriage;

For maids, though they be beautiful as elves, Fail, when with gentlemen, to "act themselves."

I love a married woman, for she knows, By deep experience in life's joys and woes,

ness;

Their happy mistresses invite me thither, I call upon the prettiest one, and then—I sit right down and spend the evening with her!

imposition. After that I felt better.

THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER.—The Courier yesterday morning thus gives the position of the editor:

So far from ever having recommended any person to join the order, I have only been a few weeks since a leading article in your issue, in which you had recommended all to join the order, and when we read of the entireties of friends we did not regard the contents of your paper as well known. We were sincerely desirous of aiding in the establishment of the principles in the main, advocated by the party, but we preferred doing so without being fettered or trammelled in any way.

We have never attended a single Council meeting, but the few weeks' experience since our separation from the order has convinced us, that no action with the order is consistent with the principles of the order, and of our attempt to do so, we have been disappointed. It is not our intention to do so, but we will not draw from the order and holding explanation in terrorem. Indeed, this latter game seems to be determined upon by the managers as a policy at this time. Numbers of honest and industrious men, who will not swallow some of the nominations made by the order, have made unsuccessful applications for withdrawal. In some instances these applications have been followed by charges being preferred against the applicant, in order to deter others from a like attempt. But in order to do this, it will be necessary to work up a high tide of excitement, and we will lose no time in relieving themselves from it.

GRAND WEDDING.—In the course of a couple of weeks, a grand wedding, it is said, is to come off at the St. Nicholas Hotel, N. Y. The bridegroom to be is a Louisiana planter, named Mitchell—reported very wealthy—and the bride to be is a daughter of Judge Conklin, formerly Judge of the Northern District of the State of New York, but more recently appointed Minister to Mexico. The St. Nicholas has been hired at $2,000 per day, for four days, and 2,000 invitations have been issued. It is intended that this shall knock all former private matrimonial comings-together into an "eternal smash" cocked hat. Make ready the ices and sherry cobblers.

WESTERN EPIQUETTE.—The Yankee out West, who wrote hitherto to himself that he had seen a live Hoosier, has sent her another epistle on Kentucky etiquette. Here it is:

Western people get their death on etiquette. You can't tell a man here that he is a you down east, without fighting. A few days ago, a man was telling two of his neighbors, in my hearing, a pretty large story. Says I, "Straighten that a whopper," says he, "Straighten that whopper and in a twinkling of an eye, I found myself in a ditch. A great quipped the worse for wear and tear. Upon another occasion, says I to a man I never saw before, as a woman passed him. 'That isn't a specimen of your Kentucky women is it?' Says he, 'you're afraid of the fiver and agree stranger, ain't you?' 'Very much,' says I. 'Well,' replied he, 'that lady is my wife, and if you don't apologise in two minutes by the honor of a gentleman, I swear that these two pistols,' which he held cocked in his hands, 'shall start you and your party entirely; so don't fear, stranger.' So I knelt down and apologized. I admire the Western country very much, but excuse me if I can stand so much etiquette.

THE MASONIC ORDER.—It looks as if Masonry is about to be thrown overboard by know nothingism. The following extract from a correspondence of the Bardonia Gazette, is full of matter for thought on the part of Masons:

As a Mason, I can fraternize with no man, (I mean a Mason,) who takes an oath to proscribe a Mason in reference to "any office of honor, trust, or profit," unless he be the nominee or member of this new order commonly denominated know nothingism.

I can fraternize with no man, who will, by oath, proscribe his fellow-citizen because of his religious belief.

I can fraternize with no man calling himself a Mason, who will assail, in improper or insulting language, the character of those he knows to be Masons, and, seemingly, because he is not a member of this new order.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR COLONIZATION.—Negro-loving Massachusetts contributed, from April 20th to May 20th, but fifteen dollars to the American Colonization Society. During the same time, Virginia contributed one thousand and forty dollars, and Arkansas five hundred and fifteen dollars.

THE METHODISTS OF CANADA WEST. at their late meeting, made two important changes in their church policy. They have consented to extend the period of a minister's residence on a circuit from two to five years, in any case where a request to that effect emanates from a quarterly meeting of a circuit. They have also consented to admit an equal representation of clerical and lay members of the annual district meeting of the convention.

FOR A MAN being commiserated with, on account of his wife running away, said, "Don't pity me till she comes back again."

AMAGNIFICENT PICTURE.—OUR COUNTRY, ITS AGRICULTURE, COMMERCE, ARTS AND MANUFACTURES. SUPERIOR PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.

This beautiful Picture is the most magnificent specimen of Lithographic Printing ever yet executed, having received impressions from SEVENTEEN DIFFERENT PLATES of various shades and colors, blended together upon the utmost care and precision, like one harmonious whole. No pains or expense were spared in securing upon its production, the services of the most skillful Artists in the country, and it forms one of the most perfect triumphs of American Art. It should grace and adorn the walls of EVERY AMERICAN HOME and enable the poetic truth that "a shining of beauty is a joy forever." The centre piece consists of a life-like portrait of THE ILLUSTRIOUS WASHINGTON, which is an exact copy of one of his best portraits taken from life with all the original coloring exactly copied. His portrait is enclosed in a frame work representing thirteen stars of the thirteen original colonies. In the right is A FEMALE FIGURE OF LIBERTY, and on the left, one of Fortitude, both splendidly executed. Above them are the figures of the Guardian Spirit of America, and Eagle by her side and surrounded by representations of the different BRANCHES OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY, hundreds of different objects, colored with life-like accuracy and artistically blended together with great skill. At the bottom, enclosed in tasteful bordering, are figures typical of wisdom, and in the center of the lower part, a beautiful representation of New York Crystal Palace. From numerous notices of the press, which space does not permit the publication of, we extract the following from an article in the Philadelphia Pennsylvania:

"The design is decidedly original, and evidences a taste as pure and sensitive as the work is unique and gorgeous. At a glance, the beholder is struck with the general appearance of the picture—upon a second look, he is not only delighted, but exclaims, what a magnificent affair—what a splendid design—what a happy blending of colors. It is true. The engraving is one of the richest specimens of the art extant, and deserves a place in every parlor in the country."

The size of the plate is 22 by 30 inches. A picture somewhat in the same style, has recently sold readily in England for five guineas, or $25. To place this within the reach of all, however, copies will be carefully packed and sent by mail, or express, postage or express fee paid, to any part of the United States, for the following sums: one copy, $1; two copies, $1.50; three copies, $2; five copies, $3; ten copies, $5; and so on.

Orders will not be attended to unless accompanied by the cash, and they should state distinctly the Post Office, County and State to which the picture is to be sent. Whenever packages can be received by express, that mode of conveyance will, perhaps, be preferable; where that is not the case they can be sent through the mail.

For Post Masters are requested to act as Agents for its sale.

Persons desiring employment in its sale, as news agents, and the trade generally, will be supplied on liberal terms.

As a limited number of copies have been printed, and the plates have since been destroyed, application must be made soon.

Heimbold's Genuine Preparations.
HEIMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract
BUCHU,

For the cure of the Bladder and Kidneys, Stricture, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, and all diseases of the urinary organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods, too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by medical physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so powerful that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease, and all other remedies, does not dry up the disease in 48 hours.

Constitutional Debility, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious career of many a noble youth, can be cured by this Fluid Extract Buchu. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confirmed invalid, no equal is to be found acting both as a Cure and preventive.

SARSAPARILLA,

For Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and long detention in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effective remedy for the cure of Scrophulous, Salt Rheum, Boils, Ulcers, of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Joints, Tetters, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrophulous diseases have entirely recovered in the innumerable wards of our Public Institutions, which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in eradicating some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed, and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible Physicians and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

HARD TIMES, HARD TIMES.

The subscribers, believing the system of indiscriminate credit to be one of the great causes of the present "HARD TIMES" and desirous of contributing to the relief of the PRESSURE, have determined to restrict their credit business to customers whom they know to be FUNDAMENTAL, and being convinced that the cash and short profit system is the best for all parties we have determined for the future to offer our friends inducement to pay cash.

To those of our many friends who have waited as well and paid us punctually we tender our heart felt thanks and cordial request a continuance of their patronage. But those of our customers who have not paid us our honest dues PUNCTUALLY are hereby informed that a continuance of their patronage is to us both UNPROFITABLE, UNSOLICITED and UNDESIRABLE.

We want customers who will settle their accounts at least once every TWELVE MONTHS. None other need apply for credit. One word to another class of troublesome customers, we mean those whom we entitle our Patrons to account. We have no regular running account with us, but who are in the habit of asking credit for the small sums of five ten or twenty cents as the case may be, to be paid to day or to-morrow or in a few days. But today, passes, to-morrow has fled, a few more have been numbered with the things that were and still our IRON PATRONS have not made their appearance, and we begin to conclude that they too [as far as our pockets are concerned] have been numbered with the past. To such we would say, we have closed our books to that kind of traffic and that in future they must come prepared to pay or prepared to meet with a refusal of credit.

Premium Indelible Writing Ink.

I WOULD call the attention of the public to the above article of INDELIBLE WRITING INK, which I am now manufacturing from a recipe lately purchased from the Pen—contains no acid and therefore will not corrode steel pens a dissipation long sought for. More over Indelible as its name implies, it will remain after it has been written with, and yet it can be sold at a very low price, entire satisfaction warranted in all cases.
